

Church Tour

This short tour of the church starts at the back of the church next to the vestry.

			Tortoise Stove. This was still being used occasionally up to about 1980. When the roof was redone in 2016 the pipe was shortened to below the roof.
			This Collage was traced from the 1842 Tithe Map and was created by local enthusiasts in 1992/3. It was made using Rag bags, knitting, crochet, stitching and painting.
			The font is thought to be a 14th century example made in an earlier Norman style. The cover has like the altar, lectern and pulpit supports which been made from roof timbers removed in the 1866 renovation.
			List of Rectors of Ruan Lanihorne. The earliest recorded is Sir Wm de Bodrigan in 1282.
		The WWI memorial plaque was installed in 1936 after relatives contributed to having it installed. Remembrance Book for WWII
		The Ten Commandments painted on wooden boards probably early 19th Century came originally from the school

This WW1 hand drawn ammunition cart was donated to the church for a flower festival many years ago by Mr John Newey. It had previously been used for selling ice creams from in the 1900's.

The Creed and Lord's Prayer, painted on board is probably early 19th Century and hang either side of the altar

The altar is made from fragments of roof timbers, carvings and bosses which were removed in the 1866 renovation

The pulpit in the 1920's stood upon roof timbers but these were shortened down to the present height. It is thought that the panels may have originally come from the rood screen.

The hagioscope was provided so that the Lord of the Manor could observe the priest officiating at the altar

The stained glass windows in the south and east walls of the transept were erected in 1868 by members of the Peter family of Treviles to commemorate their parents

Tomb containing the remains of Richard Treستان d 1664. The tomb and cover are much older than this date
